

Old Man – New Man “Program 1”

Study Guide is written by Dr. Eli Rojas

Men of Power

This lesson introduces us to the concepts of men of power, courage, simplicity, Coach and/coaching, and changing channels. All of these concepts have to do with a life for God. How do we become men of Power? Let’s explore this subject from a biblical perspective.

Declare

1. Discuss with your group what a good definition is for “men of power.” Make a list of men, real or fictional [yes you can include Super Man], which portray the image of such man and explain why they’re admired.
 - a. _____

2. Just browsing through the Bible you can come up with a few names of men who were “true men of power.” Make a list of these men and define the source of their power. Use the back of this page for that list.

Dig

3. Jim Hohnberger defined courage as “to stand for what you know is true.” How do you see the following courageous men stand for what is true?
 - a. Joshua 24:15. How is Joshua reflecting his courage before his people? Make an application for today. _____

 - b. Daniel 3:16-18. How are the three Hebrew men showing their courage? Apply this story to today’s circumstances. _____

4. Jim focuses much of the discussion around the subject of relationships. Culture directs us in establishing priorities in one direction and God wants us to go “counter-culture.” Using the back of this page, list how society expects you to prioritize things and then make another list showing how God wants you to prioritize things your life.

Devote

5. Pastor Labrador spelled relationship as “t-i-m-e.” What is he trying to say with that? What will this time concept imply for you personally? Be specific.
 - a. _____
 - b. _____
6. Simplify. Read Matthew 6:25-34 and explain how this concept of “simplifying” can be applied to your life.

a. _____

7. Making God number one in your priorities means that you put Him in charge of your life. Elaborate on the process of having God be the coach for your life, what does it mean, and how this applies to your life and what steps are you going to take to accomplish this? Share with your group.

Close with prayer by having each individual present ask God to become a “man of power” or “lady of power” if ladies are present. Only God can make us “Men of Power.”
